In the Garden

Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: "I have seen the Lord!"
John 20:18

My dad loved to sing the old hymns. One of his favourites was "In the Garden." A few years back, we sang it at his funeral. The chorus is simple: "And He walks with me, and He talks with me, and He tells me I am His own, and the joy we share as we tarry there none other has ever known." That song brought joy to my dad – as it does to me.

Hymn writer C. Austin Miles says he wrote this song in spring 1912 after reading chapter 20 of the gospel of John. "As I read it that day, I seemed to be part of the scene. I became a silent witness to that dramatic moment in Mary's life when she knelt before her Lord and cried, 'Rabboni [Teacher].'"

In John 20, we find Mary Magdalene weeping near Jesus' empty tomb. There she met a man who asked why she was crying. Thinking it was the gardener, she spoke with the risen Saviour – Jesus! Her sorrow turned to joy, and she ran to tell the disciples, "I have seen the Lord!" (v. 18).

We too have the assurance that Jesus is risen! He's now in heaven with the Father, but He hasn't left us on our own. Believers in Christ have His Spirit inside us, and through Him we have the assurance and joy of knowing He's with us, and we are "His own."

How is it comforting to know that you don't have to do this life on your own? When have you intimately felt Jesus' presence?

Jesus, I'm so thankful You're alive and that as Your child You live in me!

 Praise the LORD, O my soul!
² I will praise the LORD as long as I live;
 I will sing praises to my God while I have my being ³ Put not your trust in princes,
 in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation.
⁴ When his breath departs, he returns to the earth;
 on that very day his plans perish
